

CAPITALIZATION

Here we go with proper nouns (names, places, and, possibly, further descriptors,) from all 38 + 190 books in the series. Well, actually I expanded it to all non lowercase words except for those that start off a sentence. So, pretty much everything. Keep in mind that word phrases are subject to personal interpretation. Where I think California Gray Whale should appear as one phrase, I suppose others could argue that it should count as two or three entries. I also tended to combine plurals and possessives (Indians / Indian's / Indians') with their singular counterparts (Indian) unless I thought there was a good reason not to do so.

I'm not distinguishing between different characters, just different names. There's a bunch of fellows, good and bad, named Sam running around the series. Our dark haired hero will appear as Frank, Frank Hardy, Mr. Frank Hardy, etc. Another example would be that there are both boats and people named "Annie".

An entry is in italics only when every occurrence through all volumes is in italics. Same deal on bold.

Volumes #1 through #38 are followed by an 'o' for original text and/or an 'r' for revised text.

There's no Zoobilly Boys in here. Or is there?

| IGOR TO BOB. YOUR NEWSPAPER AD INDICATES THAT YOU ACCEPT MY OFFER. THE MILLION DOLLARS MUST BE PAID, NOT IN CURRENCY, BUT IN THE FORM OF AN EMERALD GEMSTONE OF APPROXIMATELY THAT SAME VALUE. I HAVE AN EXPERT KNOWLEDGE OF GEMS, SO DO NOT TRY TO CHEAT ME WITH A FAKE EMERALD OR SHORT-CHANGE ME WITH A STONE OF LESSER VALUE. WHEN THE STONE IS READY TO BE HANDED OVER, CONTACT ME AGAIN BY ANOTHER AD IN THE SAME PAPER. I MUST ADVISE YOU TO MOVE FAST. MY OFFER TO DEFECT MAY NOT REMAIN OPEN LONGER THAN SEVENTY-TWO HOURS. | 74            |
